Re: Supreme Court, Adm, File 2003-04

April 24, 2003

Dear Justices:

I am writing to oppose certain portions of this new proposed Amendments to the court rules.

I am a lifer who has served close to 30 years in prison. I have only one hope of getting my freedom back an that's through the court system. It takes money to hire a lawyer to file my court papers, and being in prison I only make 28.00 a months. With the help of family members I hope to have saved enough money in a few years to hire myself a lawyer, but if this new rule is passed and I am only given a year to file my 6.500 motion, I will not meet that dead line. This is not fare to me and many others.

I know that my letter is only one of a few and what I think as a prisoner means nothing, but to express this and my feeling is all that I have, and I hope with the help of the LORD the right decisions will be made when this hearing is held.

Thanking you for your time in this matter.

Donald Harris
